

Albert A. Morel, Jr.

Commander Albert A. Morel, Jr. was a native son of Hudson and a graduate of Hudson High School. When he graduated from HHS in 1943, the country was embroiled in World War II. Like many of his generation, he enlisted in the service. After only two year of college at Holy Cross, he found himself as a commissioned officer in the United States Navy headed towards the Pacific. He was only 19 years old.

After the war, he went back to school at Holy Cross and after graduation, decided to make the United States Navy his career. His tours of duty are detailed below and are highlighted by:

- Participated in the Blockade of Cuba during the Cuban Missile Crisis as Executive Officer of the USS Bristol.
- Received a special commendation from the South Korean government for his work as Protocol Officer when attached to the United Nations Command in Korea.
- Was the Security Officer at the US Naval Base in Yokosuka, Japan which was the home port of the USS Pueblo when it was captured by the North Koreans.
- Was executive officer of Subic Bay in the Philippines, which, at the time, was one of the largest naval installations in the world.
